Hi Tammy,

Thursday 20th pm would be good for me if you have a slot? We have an Inset day and are training in the morning on Teams.

Kind regards,

Hi Georgie,

I hope you are well. Following on from James' email this week I wanted to follow up and try to book an introductory half an hour online meeting with you. It would be a meeting whereby we could both introduce each other, I could learn more about where you are with your data protection and we could work on a plan for the year ahead.

I am very aware that it is a very busy time of year for schools so would welcome you sending me dates and times that would be convenient for you. I am currently booking from the week of the 3rd October. My contact details are below, or you can reply to this email or add a ticket on the Knowledgebank - I look forward to hearing from you.

Have a lovely weekend,

Many thanks,
