Dear Tammy,

Thanks for your email. Apologies for the delay in replying, we've had considerable staff absence at school.

Sean Copping (our School business Manager) leads on data protection at the school.
Sean met James fairly recently as he was also new to role.
Sean will let you know directly if he wants to arrange a meeting.

Best wishes,

Hi Louise (and Sean),

Thanks for your quick response to James' email, I'm also looking forward to working with you. If possible, I would like to arrange a half hour online meeting with you so that we can introduce ourselves and you can explain about your school and where you are at and we can work out what needs to be done for the year ahead. I know the start of term can be really busy, so happy to be guided by you - would you like to send me some dates when you are available?

I look forward to meeting you

Subject: DPE change of consultant

Dear Louise, Sean,

Welcome back - I hope that you've had an enjoyable summer!

I'm writing to let you know that we've appointed a new school consultant, Tammy Buchanan to cover the South East and she will looking after you from this point, whilst I spend more time on core-DPO functions and general business operations.

Tammy brings years of experience managing information technology for primary schools and a multi-academy trust and is a huge asset to Data Protection Education. She is cc'd in this email and will be in touch to arrange our programme for the year ahead shortly. If we have an existing appointment booked for this term, that appointment will still be valid.

If you have any questions, please do contact me or email at the usual address: dpo@dataprotection.education

Kind regards,

James
