Hi Lisa,

Really lovely to meet you today and thank you for your time, I really appreciate it. I have sent another meeting request through as discussed for December 9th at 10am for half an hour, but if we get nearer to the date and decide we need longer (depending on what we talk about), I can extend it. Suggested agenda items are: an update, policies, information security (cyber security).

Please find attached some of what we talked about and some additional information - I have also attached this to the SLA.

I will let James know your comments about the suppliers and the value you get from that information and if you could send me the retention information that would be very helpful.

Have a lovely weekend!

Best Regards,

Tammy Buchanan
