Hello Jane,

Thanks for your quick response - it would depend on whether you have your privacy notices elsewhere in the school which you could upload to the website or not?

I have attached our template privacy notices anyway for you.

Unfortunately everyone I speak to is time poor in schools and I do understand having worked in schools for more than 12 years. Half an hour is all you would need to get started in terms of what you need to do next. The school is required by law to follow the data protection rules and regulations and we are here to support you.

Please bear in mind if your school has a serious data breach and it is reported to the ICO and your staff have not been trained it could cause serious problems for the school. At the very least staff need to be trained and made aware.

I can see that you are not set up on the DPE Knowledgebank which would give you access to some of this information, including template policies and training, so I will do that shortly - it will send you a login which may go into spam so please look out for it. If your staff receive GDPR training elsewhere then that is fine, however, our platform is there for that as well.

Kay, who is also copied in on this email, is also on the Knowledgebank and so may be able to help.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you need any further help.

Many thanks,

Tammy Buchanan

Hello Tammy,

I am afraid Alex is on long term sickness, and in fact is not returning. This is all new to me and I would need support. Is this something which can be resolved quickly without a meeting initially- I am Acting head with very little SLT support and extremely time poor. Thanks

Kind regards,

Hi both,

As your data protection officer I am writing to advise that the links for both privacy notices on your school website are not working:

<https://www.stmartins.brighton-hove.sch.uk/wp-content/uploads/2021/10/St-Martins-Privacy-Notice-for-Pupils-Oct-2021-1.pdf>

<https://www.stmartins.brighton-hove.sch.uk/wp-content/uploads/2021/10/St-Martins-Privacy-Notice-for-School-Staff-Oct-2021.pdf>

Please let me know if you require any further help with this as it is something we would normally cover in a meeting or consultation as per your SLA agreement. If you would like to book a meeting I still have availability this term.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Many thanks,

Hi Alex and Kay,

Following on from James' email last week I wanted to follow up and try to book an introductory half an hour meeting with you. It would be a meeting whereby we could all introduce each other, I could learn more about where you are with your data protection and we could work on a plan for the year ahead.

I am very aware that it is a busy time for schools, so would welcome you sending me dates and times that would be convenient for you and am currently booking from the week of the 3rd October. My contact details are below, or you can reply to this email or add a ticket to the Knowledgebank - I look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Alex, Kay

Welcome back - I hope that you've had an enjoyable summer!

I'm writing to let you know that we've appointed a new school consultant, Tammy Buchanan to cover the South East and she will be looking after you from this point, whilst I spend more time on core-DPO functions and general business operations.

Tammy brings years of experience managing information technology for primary schools and a multi-academy trust and is a huge asset to Data Protection Education. She is cc'd in this email and will be in touch to arrange our programme for the year ahead shortly. If we have an existing appointment booked for this term, that appointment will still be valid.

If you have any questions, please do contact me or email at the usual address:
