Hi Kat,

Thanks for your email - that really depends on what your procedure is regarding policy full sign off and minor edits within your organisation. The DfE guidance on privacy notices is here:

chrome-extension://efaidnbnmnibpcjpcglclefindmkaj/https://assets.publishing.service.gov.uk/government/uploads/system/uploads/attachment_data/file/1103871/Privacy_Note_guide_2022_v1-4.pdf

It may be that you need to decide whether your changes constitute a minor edit or not? If it is going to take some time, in the interim you could add a page on your website about data protection that includes information about who the data protection officer is. This is an example of one way that schools do it, except you could name DPE on the page as the DPO:

Trowse Primary School - GDPR

I would advise putting the DPO contact information in all of your data protection policies and procedures going forward.

The DfE guidance does say that they should be reviewed regularly. I hope that helps.

Many thanks,

Hi Tammy

Thank you very much for taking time to speak with us yesterday – I found the meeting really helpful.

About our privacy notice, we would need to update it to include the contact details of DPO etc. Would these have to be ratified by the governors yet or would they need to be published as soon as possible?

Appreciate your advice.

Thank you so much.

Hi both,

Thanks for your time this morning. Please find attached a short report covering some of the things we discussed and some additional links. I have attached some of the template policies we discussed as well, but these can also be found in the Best Practice Area and Resources in the Knowledgebank.

There is a section in the iRMS toolkit about Governing body documents but does not specifically cover minutes so am trying to check for you. I will take time to go through the Making the Rounds that you did in February and provide some feedback for that later in the week.

I have sent through the next meeting invite, but if you need anything in the meantime, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Many thanks,

Tammy Buchanan
