Hello Sally,

Thank you for booking some time with me to discuss your data protection, I can confirm that I have received it and added onto the calendar. Just to advise that in order to add the information about the meeting into the Knowledgebank I needed to set you up as a user. This means that you will have been sent an email with some login information for it. You won't need to use it for the meeting, just making you aware of it, as you may need to login at a future date.

I look forward to seeing you then.

Many thanks,
Tammy
