Hello Nicola,

Further to my emails in September and October, I am writing to you again to try to book a short 30 minute online meeting with you to discuss your data protection. If you are not the correct contact, please could you forward this onto the person that is? To help facilitate booking a time, please see the link below which will show you my availability and allow you to book a time in that suits you:

Hello Nicola,

Further to my email in September I am writing again to offer you an introductory online half an hour meeting to introduce myself as your data protection consultant at DPE and to look at how the school manages data protection.

As a reminder, we are your data protection officer and as part of our service we also provide:

Training & Consultancy
Data Protection Audits
Access to the Knowledgebank
DPO Support
Subject Access Request Support
Data Breach Support and much more

I am currently booking dates from the 17th November. My contact details are below, or you can reply to this email or add a ticket to the Knowledgebank - I look forward to hearing from you

Many thanks,

Hi Nicola,

Following on from Arrienne's email I wanted to follow up and try to book an introductory half an hour meeting with you. It would be a meeting whereby we could all introduce each other, I could learn more about where you are with your data protection and we could work on a plan for the year ahead.

I am very aware that it is a busy time for schools, so would welcome you sending me dates and times that would be convenient for you and am currently booking from the week of the 17th October. My contact details are below, or you can reply to this email or add a ticket to the Knowledgebank - I look forward to hearing from you.

Many thanks,

Hi Nicola,

Welcome back - I hope that you've had an enjoyable summer!

I'm writing to let you know that we've appointed a new school consultant, Tammy Buchanan to cover the South East and she will be looking after you from this point.

Tammy brings years of experience managing information technology for primary schools and a multi-academy trust and is a huge asset to Data Protection Education. She is cc'd in this email and will be in touch to arrange our programme for the year ahead shortly.

If you have any questions, please do contact the usual address: dpo@dataprotection.education

Kind regards,

Arrienne
