Hi Siobhan,

Thanks for your time today. As discussed I have attached a short report which contains the details we discussed and some additional links and information that you might find useful.

- In answer to your first question about sharing class lists, I found this information on the Knowledgebank which you might find useful. I think the answer is probably still no for this year, but might help you plan for next year:

<https://dataprotection.education/best-practice-update/221-sharing-class-lists-for-christmas>

- Here is a link for an example of how another school lays out their data protection page and their third party supplier information:

- I have attached a useful infographic which is also good guidance for how privacy/data protection can work in a practical way in school. This might be useful to share with members of staff.

- I have attached a short video that shows you how to assign courses to staff.

All the other information and links can be found in the attached document. If you do require a demo, then please contact me and I will organise that for you.

I will shortly send you the meeting invite for the 24th February and I look forward to seeing you then.

Have a good Christmas - I look forward to seeing you in the new year, but please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Many thanks,

Tammy Buchanan
