Hi Tammy

I have a quick question, please could you help us out with it?

In Oct 22, one of our mentors was tripped by a child and had significant injuries. She is still off work now. She has made claim against the local authority for this and they have outsourced the working of this claim to Orbis Public Law.

Orbis are asking us various questions and mostly this is fine and we can answer them. However, one of the things they want is a log of behaviour incidents for this child who caused the accident. It feels like this would not be appropriate. Can we send these logs?

Many thanks.
