Hi Mark,

I am good thank you - I hope you're doing OK?

Yes it is as that would normally come under a Safeguarding/child protection umbrella rather than data protection. Even when I was the IT Manager of the MAT I was never invited to get involved in this as it was always something that the SLT team organised. They used to use an ex-police officer for both staff and students which had quite an impact, they even used to run practical sessions for parents.

Here are some useful resources where you might find something:

NSPCC : <https://learning.nspcc.org.uk/research-resources/schools/e-safety-for-schools>The Safer Internet Centre: <https://saferinternet.org.uk/>.The government guidance is here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/teaching-online-safety-in-schools/teaching-online-safety-in-schools>.ThinkUKnow is an excellent resource: <https://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/professionals/our-views/five-key-takeaways-from-the-dfes-new-online-safety-guidance/>.

SWGFL and LGFL normally offer excellent courses as well.

I hope that helps,

Many thanks,

Hi Tammy,

Hope you are well?

Is the 'Stay Safe Online NCSC' for staff the only online safety course DPE have or are there others please?

Kind regards
