Hi Abi,

Thank you for your time yesterday and for showing me around the school. Please find attached my report from Making the Rounds and recommendations. The notes that I did as we walked around can be found here:

<https://dataprotection.education/courses-heading/making-the-rounds-log> and also show any positive observations.

I have attached the report for you which contains advisories, which should be considered alongside any risks that you know about.

We have a meeting booked on the 10th February online for a follow up so I look forward to seeing you then.

Have a lovely weekend.

Many thanks,

Tammy Buchanan
