Hi Paula,

I hope you are all well. I have just checked on the ICO registration and can see that you have not advised them of appointing DPE as your DPO. Just a reminder that as you have appointed Data Protection Education as your DPO that in line with Article 37(7) of the UK GDPR you are required to notify the ICO of our contact details:

7. The controller or the processor shall publish the contact details of the data protection officer and communicate them to the Commissioner .

The information on what is required and the process is here:

<https://dataprotection.education/best-practice-update/110-make-sure-dpe-is-your-registered-dpo-with-the-ico>

This also includes the contact information required for publishing in your data protection policy and/or privacy notice and/or website as also mentioned in the Article above.

I hope that helps.

Many thanks,

Tammy Buchanan
