Hi Liz,

Yes the data protection policy has just been updated, as has the Acceptable Use Policy. This article gives the details on the latest changes:

<https://dataprotection.education/best-practice-update/376-updates-to-the-model-data-protection-policy>

the privacy notices were also updated recently:

<https://dataprotection.education/best-practice-update/374-privacy-notice-update>

James hasn't said anything about updating the FOI policy at the moment. Currently a lot of the changes are as a result of what is happening with AI and any ICO reprimands. As long as you keep an eye on the news on our website, or check your Keep In the Know! email updates from us, you should see the latest ones.

The Data Protection Bill is currently working its way through Parliament which will mean a lot of changes but that could happen by the end of the year or up to another year, we don't have that information yet. We hope to be able to publish a bit of an update in September.

Sorry you have to work during the holidays! I hope that helps, I will drop James a note to ask of any further policy changes that may happen.

Have a lovely weekend,

Many thanks,
Tammy

Afternoon Tammy,

I'm just mapping out the work I need to do over the Summer.

Any news on whether or not you will be issuing an updated Model Policies for:

- Data Protection - I can see an update from end June 2023 listing just a few areas in the Model Policy for changes. So that's fine.
- Acceptable Use of ICT agreement for staff and governors?
- Freedom of Information?

I need to update ours in time to get them to FGB for approval end of Sept, so hoping to work on them while it's quiet over the Summer Hols.

Many thanks,

With best wishes

Hi Tammy

Really good to meet you too. Thanks. A really helpful and concise session and you've signposted me to some very useful resources and training.

And yes please an update on newer versions of the relevant Policies would be great. I'll be working on them over the Summer Holiday, for Governors to approve in September.

FYI - I looked at New Era Tech and can see they are and have probably always been a bigger company than I realised. Here is their GDPR page....

Hi Liz,

Thanks for your time today, it was good to meet you. Please find below the information we discussed:

Training: we discussed training and updating the staff on the Knowledge Bank. The courses I talked about are:
GDPR Refresh (20 mins)
Data Breaches (5-10 mins)
Subject Access Requests (5-10 mins)

The ICO have recently produced some short videos which may be helpful and are in this article: <https://dataprotection.education/best-practice-update/363-subject-access-requests-sars>

It is possible to add governors to the Knowledge Bank and would recommend they have the role of trustee.

Details of how to assign courses to staff are here: <https://dataprotection.education/site-updates/291-assigning-users-to-courses>

NCSC/Governors: this article covers everything I mentioned in relation to the Governors and some questions and training recommended: <https://dataprotection.education/infosec/312-cyber-responsibilities-for-governors-trustees-in-schools>

Policies- The templates for the policies we discussed are here:

Data Protection Policy

This area has all the details about the privacy notices and which ones are needed (under the model notices and resources tab): <https://dataprotection.education/best-practice-library/best-practice/transparency>

I will check on the status of the Data Protection and Acceptable Use one regarding any updates.

Here is an example of a school's GDPR page which might be helpful when you are thinking about your website: Trowse Primary School - GDPR

Due diligence: we discussed due diligence for New Era Technology. The new due diligence form is here: <https://dataprotection.education/best-practice-library/documents/procedures/135-supplier-due-diligence-form>

Instructions on how to use the form is here (under the guidance tab): <https://dataprotection.education/best-practice-library/best-practice/due-diligence-best-practice-area> but if you receive a completed one back, please email it to dpo@dataprotection.education, or send it to me, and we can work on the due diligence for you.

In each best practice area the relevant news articles should now pull through under the Examples & advice tab in each.

Newsletter: we discussed receiving the newsletter. I checked the mail log and these are the dates and times it was sent to sbm@
