Hi Paula,

This is a data retention schedule rather than policy as it specifies how long you are keeping items for as per the law/regulation. A records and data management policy might give detail about records management i.e. what you are going to do with the data and the type of data (which includes emails), for example:

<https://dataprotection.education/best-practice-library/documents/procedures/53-records-management-policy>

More information about the DfE requirement can be found here:

<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/data-protection-in-schools/data-retention>

Which in effect could be part of the same policy, so a records management policy might have the retention schedule as an appendix at the end of the policy.

Many thanks,
Tammy
